

List of Credibly Accused Non-Clergy

May 1, 2020

The following list reflects the names of teachers, employees, laypersons, or volunteers who have been credibly accused of some form of sexual abuse of a child, where the accusation has some alleged connection to the Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg. As used here, the phrase “sexual abuse of a child” means sexual molestation or sexual exploitation of a child (a person under the age of 18), including the use of child pornography, and other behavior by which an adult uses a child as an object of sexual gratification, including attempted behavior.
